

Senior Interior Designer

Casa Forma are looking to recruit a Senior Interior Designer from a luxury residential or luxury hospitality background.

A high level of proficiency is required in the following Key Skills for this role:

- Creative individual with 8yrs+ experience in Interior Design
- Strong team leader skills, able to manage a team, run projects to time and on budget
- Ability to run several projects consecutively
- Able to project manage from inception to completion including site management
- Highly organised, process based and able to coordinate suppliers, agents, contractors
- Excellent at detailing drawings including bespoke joinery
- Able to develop tender packages and schedules of work
- Able to produce and detail working drawings
- Great spatial layout skills
- Skilled in detailing bespoke joinery
- Proficient in AutoCAD (2D) with knowledge of xrefs
- Sketch up, Rendering Skills, Photoshop & InDesign
- Good knowledge of Microsoft Office required
- Hand Sketching
- Confident client facing and presentation skills
- Extensive knowledge of high-end materials, bespoke finishes and artisans
- Extensive knowledge of FF&E, fabrics, high-end suppliers
- Pro-active and team orientated, calm and confident
- Salary: dependant on experience

Responsibilities

- Management of clients including brief taking, meetings, presentations and producing associated minutes/agenda's
- Guide the project team from concept through schematic design and ensure the continuity of design throughout the design development, interior design documentation and construction administration phases
- Develop innovative FF&E designs in response to the client briefs under the guidance of senior staff
- Formulate project timelines and budgets
- Create specification documents, schedules and costings
- Procure, QC and manage the installation and dressing of FF&E
- Co-coordinate contractors and suppliers and review and sign off any drawings/specifications they may produce